Black Girls Rock Intern

The Center for Hope and Healing (CHH) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the healing and empowerment of survivors of sexual violence through counseling, trauma-informed advocacy, and to the prevention of sexual violence through community mobilization and education. We are a multicultural organization whose mission is grounded in social justice and to ending intersecting forms of oppression and violence. CHH currently seeks a Black Girls Rock Intern. This is a 7 month, 10-15 hours a week paid internship.

Responsibilities: The Black Girls Rock Intern reports to the Hope Prevents Manager.

- Identify and engage Black girls and women with targeted efforts to engage and empower leaders
- Collaborate and support Hope Prevents educators and specialists on overall Prevention programming
- Work with schools
- Attend meetings and trainings
- Provide psychoeducation
- Conduct outreach and recruitment

Qualifications: We are seeking candidates who excel in relationship-building and have a commitment to social justice and racial equity. Our strongest candidates have:

- A track record of developing and maintaining strong working relationships with individuals and communities.
- A demonstrated commitment to meeting a high bar and a history of getting things done in the face of obstacles
- Experience managing multiple groups and project in a demanding environment
- An accountability to self and to others as a requisite for healthy and therapeutic relationships
- A practiced ability to receive, utilize, and give constructive feedback across level and across difference regarding performance, presentation, and relationships with others.

Other Requirements:

- Flexible work schedule a must, as this position may require working nights and weekends
- Reliable transportation and a valid driver license as this position will require travel
- Excellent interpersonal skills and ability to work with a wide range of people and flexibility
- Strong organizational skills for handling multiple tasks at once in a fast-paced environment.

To Apply

Women, survivors, people of color, LGBQ/T individuals, and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply. To Apply email resume and cover letter to Community Impact Manager: Masada Jones, masada@chhinc.org Please use subject heading: Black Girls Rock. No calls please.